

The do not call list discriminates against small business owners who depend on referrals for business.